1. The Club reserves the right to remove any person from the show. The Show Superintendent shall have full control of the above shows and trials, which will be governed by CKC rules.
2. Any dog excused by the Show Superintendent or the Show Veterinarian for any reason shall not, after being excused, compete in any class for any award for the balance of the show.
3. The show committee will use due care and diligence for the welfare of dogs and exhibitors, but will not be responsible for, or assume any liability in the event of accident, or other misfortune, to either dogs, exhibitors or patrons.
4. A Judge or any person participating in any capacity at a Dog Show held under CKC Rules shall not be subjected to any indignity of any kind during the progress of the show and it shall be the duty and obligation of the Club holding the show to see that this rule is effectively carried out. The Show Superintendent shall promptly report to the CKC any infringement of the rules, and the Discipline Committee shall have the power to take such action as it deems fit on receipt of a report indicating that this rule has been violated.
5. Exhibitors are solely responsible for the conduct or actions of their animals while they are on the show grounds.
6. DOGS MUST BE READY FOR JUDGING. The Club will not be responsible for and is not obligated to provide any service for notifying owners or agents of breed or class judging. No ring shall be held up waiting for exhibitors or handlers. Exhibitors & Handlers with more than one dog shall have substitute handlers available so the judging will not be delayed. 7. The owner of a dog entered in these shows is entirely responsible for any error in entering his/her dog, regardless of how or by whom the entry was made.
8. A dog once disqualified for any reason at a championship show held under these rules cannot again be shown at a show held under these rules until the dog has been examined by an official committee appointed by the CKC and the committee finds the dog is free from the condition which prompted the disqualification. Application for reinstatement must be accompanied by a fee of $50.00 plus GST which shall be forfeited to the CKC if the examining committee is satisfied that the dog should remain disqualified. All awards earned at a dog show in violation of this rule shall be canceled by the CKC and the owner of the dog is subject to disciplinary action.

10. For the benefit of the health of animals and the pleasure of the exhibitors and spectators we insist upon keeping our grounds and buildings as clean as possible. ## Vancouver Island Performance & Earthdog Group

Barn Hunt Trials

Barn Hunt is a fast-growing dog sport, open to all breeds, that tests a dog's innate ability to detect prey by scent and sound. Dogs hunt rats (safely and comfortably secured in sturdy plastic tubes) hidden in a maze of hay bales while handlers watch to identify when their dog has found the quarry.

The sport is great fun for all participants — including the rats! They are trained to the trial situation and show every sign of enjoying the stimulating outing.

The Vancouver Island Performance and Earthdog Group is holding Barn Hunt Association-sanctioned trials on May 12–13 in conjunction with the Tye Kennel Club show. The premium will be posted on Canuck Dogs near the end of March.

No experience necessary to participate! We are offering Instinct classes both days, providing dogs and handlers with an easy, motivating introduction.

However, participating dogs must be registered with the Barn Hunt Association. Register here: <http://www.barnhunt.com/register.html>

Learn more about Barn Hunt here: http://www.barnhunt.com/about\_bh.html
