Introducing

DAWNE
DEELEY

My involvement with Finnish breeds began over thirty years ago, with the acquisition of my first Karelian Bear Dog. The breed was not much known in Canada at the time, and acceptance in the purebred world was a challenge - but perseverance paid off, and by 1996 I had my first Canadian champions. Ch. Tihun Kati (imp. Finland) was to be my foundation bitch, and MCh. Sune's Dansk Aesir (imp. Denmark) would take his place in history books as Canada's first Group and BIS winner, culminating with a #6 Top Dog All Breeds finish in 1997.

Since then dogs carrying the TsarShadow prefix have garnered accolades the world over, including titles at such prestigious events as Finland's annual 'Voittaja' and the Nordic Kennel Union's "Nordic Winner". We have championship titles in over twenty-five countries, multiple World Winner awards and in 2013 MCh. TsarShadow's I Speak Of War ('Kosto') took RBIS at the European Winners show in Geneva, Switzerland. However, perhaps my proudest achievement came at the hands of the Government Of Finland; in 2005 then-President Tarja Halonen awarded my kennel the Order Of The Lion for "...continued work in the preservation and protection of the Carelian Bear Dog overseas and abroad...".

Now, as a life member of Finland's parent breed club - Suomenpystykorva järjesto - it is no exaggeration to say that my love for all things Finnish permeates everything I do, every single day, and it goes without saying that includes ALL her native dog breeds. I am incredibly honoured and proud to have been selected to judge your 2024 national Specialty, and I look forward to an amazing experience!!

Kiitos paljon kaikesta!!

Introducing

Regional Specialty

♥ Judge ♥

Lori Iverson

Lori has bred German Shepherds under the Nobler prefix for over 35 years. Her first dog was unregistered but upon joining the GSDC of Manitoba club in Jan. 1979 the world of breeding and exhibiting purebred dogs was opened up.

- On the Education Committee for the GSDC of Canada, Lori has co-produced 2 ringside mentoring programs at 2 National Specialties for judges and breeders. Currently, she is involved with the Alberta Kennel Club as a Director and Chief Ring Steward for the Summer Classic, as well as on the board of 2 Regional GSD Clubs and the GSDCC.

The Nobler kennel name can be found on over 50 champions and on many Best in Show and Best in Specialty winners. As well, Lori handled many other breeds when living in Manitoba, primarily Herding, Working and Sporting breeds.

- Lori is currently licensed for half of the Herding group. Since starting her judging journey she has done several GSD specialties including the pre-show at the 2023 GSD Nationals.

Introducing Susan Bertrand

I have bred and exhibited Collies since 1981. In addition to showing in Canada, I have exhibited extensively in the U.S. Rainforest Collies has produced American and Canadian champions of which we are very proud, having won Collie Club of Canada Nationals, along with many Specialties throughout the years in the US and Canada. Breeding and showing dogs around Canada and the US has given me so much joy in my life. I am licensed through the AKC to judge Collies. Now that I am retired, I am ring stewarding for all breed and Specialty shows, which I love as I can appreciate beautiful dogs from many breeds. I am looking forward to judging sweepstakes for the Finnish Lapphund club!

FLCC National Specialty
Juvenile and Veteran Sweeps

Introducing Jackie Vetter

I've been involved in dog shows for 50 years, first attending a sanction match with a school friend as a child, then later acquiring quality (Rough) collies from here in Canada and the USA. Collies hold a special place for me.

Over time my interest in Shetland Sheepdogs took ahold and I have owned/bred/owner handled Shelties since the mid 80's.

By circumstance and choice I have bred on a small scale, so I'm extremely proud of the quality of the dogs produced under my Permanently Registered kennel name, Amarige ... also thrilled to see their influence being passed through the generations.

I have also had the privilege of judging several Specialty Sweepstakes, one highlight being the Collie Club of Canada National Specialty, as well as several All Breed Sweeps and Sanction Matches.

I'm looking forward to judging the Juvenile and Veteran Sweeps classes at the Finnish Lapphund Club of Canada Regional Specialty.

Thank you for the opportunity

EXTRA SPECIAL SPECIALTY ACTIVITIES

LEGEND OF OGOPOGO

Deep within the emerald waters of Canada's Okanagan Lake resides a legendary creature known as OgoPogo. This elusive lake monster, often described as a serpent or a large sea creature, has been a prominent figure in local Indigenous folklore for centuries.

Before European settlers arrived in the Okanagan region of British Columbia, the Indigenous Syilx people inhabited the land. Within their rich oral traditions, they told stories of a mythical creature that lived in the depths of Okanagan Lake. Known as Naitaka, this creature was often depicted as a serpent or water spirit.

Over the years, numerous sightings of OgoPogo have been reported, both by locals and tourists.
